Conditions of Entry

1. Entry cost for artwork is $6 per piece with a maximum of 3 pieces per artist. If there is insufficient space BRASA reserves the right to edit the number of pieces. Entry forms submitted by March 30 can deduct $1 from the entry price for each piece making it $5 for each piece up to 3 pieces. Entries will close on Monday April 1 at 2pm.
2. All work must be for sale and BRASA will take a commission of 15% for all work sold during the exhibition. All artwork sold will be settled with the artist direct to their bank account within 14 days from the close of the exhibition.
3. All 2D art work must be prepared ready to hang and must fit available wall height. 3D work must not weigh more than 10kg and be able to be moved by 1 person.
4. Work must be delivered to the café by no later than Wednesday April 3th at 12 noon and collected by Tuesday April 16 at 2pm. Any work left at the café is at the discretion of the café proprietors and if not collected and not able to be kept at the café its disposal is at the discretion of BRASA.
5. It is requested that any work that is sold during the exhibition remain at the venue until the exhibition ends on Sunday April 14th. This does not apply to purchases by out of town people.
6. The hanging and arranging of all work is at the complete discretion of BRASA but every attempt will be made to ensure the cohesive and balanced display of work.
7. While all care will be taken of artwork on display, no responsibility will be taken for theft or damage during the exhibition or while the work is exhibited at the café. Artists are encouraged to provide their own insurance if this is of concern.
8. Opening night will be from 6pm on Thursday April 4th at the Nook & Kranny café in Lower Beechmont. Entry to the exhibition is $15 per person which includes finger food. Drinks available at the bar.
